

Pledge to Make a Testamentary Gift to Hoosac School

Declaration dated the ____ day of _____, 20____, in pledge of a testamentary gift to the Hoosac School.

In consideration of its commendable purposes and good works and, specifically, to encourage Hoosac School with support for its future operations, _____ hereby pledges that at the time of his death he will make a gift to the School of not less than _____.

_____ reserves the right to satisfy this pledge by making a donation in one or more of the following ways: (1) by a gift in either his Last Will and Testament or (2) in a trust that serves as a testamentary disposition of property or (3) by a designation of the School as the beneficiary of (a) a life insurance policy or (b) a deferred compensation plan.

Hoosac School is deeply thankful to and relies upon _____ for this pledge, made in order that the School will perpetuate its mission according the principles of its Founder. It is understood that Hoosac will satisfy the above-named Donor's expectations by pursuing such goals as will further enhance the academic, athletic and spiritual life of its students.

Further, it is understood and agreed that:

1. If within 6 months of the date hereof the School has not been advised which of the alternative arrangements the Donor has made for satisfying the pledge, the Donor invites a representative of the School's Development Office to write him for details at his address of record.
2. While it is intended that this pledge will be in addition to his annual gifts to the School, the Donor may inform the School that a particular annual gift shall be applied against the outstanding balance of the pledge.
3. The Donor has been advised that a pledge of this amount will qualify him for election to membership in the Wotkyns Society, consisting of certain individuals whose generosity to the School is exceptional. If he so desires the undersigned may ask that his/her election to membership in that Society be announced in Hoosac Today.
4. This agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Donor and the School and supersedes previous communications, if any, as to the undertakings set forth above.
